

STOCKHOLM INTERNATIONAL SUMMER MASTERCLASS 2011

for flute players

5th-9th of July

CECILIE LØKEN

Guest teacher: Håvard Lysebo

Cecilie Løken has studied the flute at the Royal Academy of Music in London with William Bennett and she started her professional carrier at the age of 21. She has given concerts in most of the great concert halls in the world, such as Carnegie Hall in New York, Royal Albert Hall in London and Musikverein in Vienna.

She had her international solo debut 1994 in Zurich, with Mariss Jansons conducting.

She has worked as principal flutist with many orchestras, such as Mahler Chamber Orchestra, Stockholm Philharmonic Orchestra and the Rotterdam Philharmonic Orchestra.

In 1997-99 Cecilie held the position as principal flutist in the Norwegian Opera, 1999-2002 at the Royal Opera in Stockholm and in Bergen Philharmonic Orchestra 2006-08.

She has released several solo records with big success.

In 2003 she was honoured as "Associate of the Royal Academy of Music" in London.

Today she is the principal flutist in The Norwegian Chamber Orchestra, and plays with Valery Gergievs World Orchestra for Peace.

She regularly gives masterclasses around Europe.

Håvard Lysebo is co-principal flutist in Göteborgs Symfoniker and was already at the age of 19 appointed to co-principal flutist in Stavanger Symphony Orchestra. He also held the position as principal flutist in Malmö Symphony Orchestra for many years. 2009/10 he was the main flute teacher at the University in Göteborg

Erik Larsson is our professional acupressure therapist! He has specialized in treating musicians, and there will be a possibility to book a session at the course.

(Great help for the ones who suffer from headache, muscular pains and back problems!) The session lasts one hour.
